Cultural Arts Upcoming Events

David Lubar, author of such favorites as the Weenie book series and My Rotten Life will be visiting us on Thursday, November 19th. His presentation answers the one question everybody asks: "Where do you get your ideas?" He will show students the various techniques he uses, and let the students try their hand at a short writing exercises. It will be an interactive, energetic workshop that will leave the kids eager to do more writing on their own.

Mr. Lubar will be autographing books for your children. We will do our best to distribute all autographed books to students by the end of the day on Thursday, but in the event the author needs more time, all remaining books will be sent home on Friday, November 20th.

Simple ways to help your PTA:

Clip those Boxtops and Campbell Labels and send them in to school! We raised $768 in BoxTops earnings in 2008-2009.

We are accepting empty ink cartridges and old cell phones. Our school earns money for qualifying items!

Message from the President

Thank you to all who have volunteered to help our school.

The back-to-school packets, teacher buffet, our bookfair, the fall catalog fundraiser, Market Day, our cultural arts programs, Halloween Hallway, our PTA membership drive, the phone directory, Reflections, our online newsletter and our wonderful Homeroom Reps all have been a success thanks to the help and participation of so many! The PTA Board wishes everyone a happy holiday season.

2009-2010 Lincoln/Roosevelt Reflections

Theme is "Beauty is..." Give your children the opportunity to define themselves as they creatively interpret/express what "Beauty is" for them through 6 different mediums: Visual arts, Photography, Literature, Musical Composition, Dance Choreography, Film Production. All entries must demonstrate creativity & theme interpretation. Unlimited entries can be submitted! Due in early November, 2009. For more information, contact Vasiliki Fotinis at vasilikif@verizon.net or Deb Steckler at Deborah99@aol.com. In order to allow all Roxbury students to participate, we would like to provide those with limited opportunities to express themselves. If you have any extra art mediums, consider donating them to L/R Art Room to be used during LAP period to create their projects!
