

Lincoln-Roosevelt PTA Newsletter

September to October 2009

Cultural Arts Upcoming Events

October 13 - Motivational

Productions presents Friends - a program about friendship and how important relationships are in your life. It focuses on how you can be a friend, how you choose your friends and how you can lose your friends. By combining real life stories, inspirational music and entertaining box office movie clips on three giant screens, students will be mesmerized and moved.

October 15th- The Signature Project is a multi-faceted Cultural Arts Program. Its core is a huge 76 ft x 36 ft mural layered with hidden secrets. A live performance brings the mural to life, with artist Patrick Dunning ingeniously weaving stories and images in the great tradition of Irish artists. A unique, exhilarating tapestry blending art and technology, the live performance of The Signature Project also offers the opportunity for the audience to join over 300,000 people whose signatures already comprise the fabric of this monumental artwork.

Don't Forget to Send in your Box
Tops and Campbells Labels for Education!!!!

Please Remember

Message from the President

I want to thank everyone for supporting our school. Thank you to those who volunteer their time and thank you also to those who make purchases for our fundraisers. With the money we raise we will be offering many fun enrichment programs for our children this year. These include cultural arts programs, Halloween Hallway, Family BINGO night, book fairs, Reflection events, 6th grade picnic, and of course our teacher appreciation events to name a few. Our PTA also provides agenda book for all of our students. There are always opportunities to help. You can find our PTA information at www.roxbury.org, go to the Lincoln/Roosevelt link and click on PTA. -Tammy Kistner-

2009-2010 Lincoln/Roosevelt Reflections

Theme is "Beauty is..." Give your children the opportunity to define themselves as they creatively interpret/express what "Beauty is" for them through 6 different mediums: Visual arts, Photography, Literature, Musical Composition, Dance Choreography, Film Production. All entries must demonstrate creativity & theme interpretation. Unlimited entries can be submitted! Due in early November, 2009. For more information, contact Vasiliki Fotinis at vasilikif@verizon.net or Deb Steckler at Deborah99@aol.com.

In order to allow all Roxbury students to participate, we would like to provide those with limited opportunities to express themselves. If you have any extra art mediums, consider donating them to L/R Art Room to be used during LAP period to create their projects!

Scholastic Fall Book Fair 2009 arrives!

We are happy to announce the first of our Book Fairs this year, which will be held Tuesday, September 29 - Friday, October 2.

Reading is an essential part of our children's lives and education, and you'll see no finer example of the love of reading than here at Lincoln-Roosevelt, where our reading programs and Book Fairs have unparalleled teacher and parent support!

Please support this Fair, which earns books for classrooms and funds which benefit all of our terrific PTA programs. Parents are welcome at any time; please visit the Fair so you can see the unique focus on literacy that makes our Lincoln-Roosevelt Book Fair program one-of-a-kind!

Please join us for our signature FAMILY NIGHT AT THE BOOK FAIR: make-your-own ice cream sundaes for all while you browse the Fair! Everyone is welcome! FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2:

5:30pm - 8:30pm! Bring your friends and relatives, and shop for holiday gifts while enjoying your ice cream!

As always, we will present our Teacher Wish List Board for those who would like to donate the gift of reading to their child's classroom. We will again be sponsoring the "One For Books" program, by which any change donated contributes books to underprivileged children.

Please contact Donna Rasmussen (973-448-7548; danras@optonline.net) with questions or if you would like to volunteer to help at our Fair. Happy Reading!

SEE YOU AT THE BOOK FAIR!

Please Remember

Send in your Box Tops and Campbells Labels for Education!!!!

If you would like your event (occurring in November or December) or committee mentioned in the next issue of the on-line newsletter, please send your blurb no later than October 20th, to kherraz@yahoo.com. Thanks!