It seems crazy that December is right around the corner, but it is time to start getting the word out to our schools and community about our Second Annual Pajama Day Event to support the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). We will again be hosting this important day on Friday, December 3rd, where we will encourage our students, staff and community to donate to this worthwhile cause. Here is the link for the website to share out for people to donate digitally.
