Academic Ceremony

Dress: The origin of academic dress can be traced to the medieval university, when robes were often necessary for warmth in the unheated halls where scholarly enclaves gathered. Today, however, the scholar’s sweeping black gown has become a ceremonial symbol of academic distinction. In the United States, formal guidelines for ceremonial dress at an academic convocation are detailed in the Intercollegiate Code on academic dress.

By stipulating design and color variations in the ceremonial robe, the Code provides a system to distinguish the academic degree, institution, and field of study of the wearer. The traditional robe is black, but at some institutions earning a doctorate carries with it the privilege of wearing a robe in the institutional color.

Degree: The shape and size of the hood and the design of the sleeves indicate the academic degree of the wearer.
- Bachelor’s Degree: Pointed sleeves, usually without hood.
- Master’s Degree: Long, closed sleeves, with arms slits, and a narrow hood.
- Doctor’s Degree: Bell-shaped sleeves, with a broad, draped hood.

Institution: The color of the lining in the hood denotes the college or university by which the degree was conferred.

Field of Study: The color of the facing in the hood identifies the field of study in which the academic degree was conferred.
- Drab: Accounting, Business Management
- White: Arts, Letters, Humanities
- Copper: Economics
- Light Blue: Education
- Brown: Fine Arts
- Lemon: Library Science
- Pink: Music
- Dark Blue: Philosophy
- Sage Green: Physical Education
- Golden Yellow: Science
- Cream: Social Studies
- Scarlet: Theology

Best wishes and thank you for all you have done for Roxbury High School as a student government officer.

A very special thank you to Mrs. Ruth Ann Falvey for all the time she devoted to embroidering “RHS” on all the graduation stoles.

ALMA MATER
The Dark Blue and Gold

Through the four long years of Roxbury
‘Midst the scenes to us so dear,
   Full of hustle, full of hurry,
Are the days that we spend here.
   As we won athletic victories
On the football field of old,
Still we work for dear old Roxbury
And the Dark Blue and the Gold.

Although other schools are larger,
And their names are better known,
Still the school that we will favor
Is the school that is our own.
We will work for dear old Roxbury
And float her colors bold.
For the colors of our High School
And the Dark Blue and the Gold.

When the cares of life o’ertake us,
Mingling fast our locks with gray,
Should our dearest hopes betray us,
False fortune fall away.
Still we banish care and sadness
At the memories of old,
And recall those days of gladness
‘Neath the Dark Blue and the Gold.
