

9th Annual Festival

1st Round:

January 31 – February 2, 2020

Did you ever wonder how new plays are chosen for production? Here's your chance to find out and if you wish, participate in the process!

About the Festival:

In our New Play-Reading Festival, four brand-new plays for young audiences, chosen from over 100 submitted works, will be read by professional and community artists in a casual setting. Following each reading, the entire family can participate in discussion of the work with our professional team. One of the four plays will be selected to become a fully mounted production in 2021! Bring the family for this unique theatre event!

OPEN to EVERYONE!

$5 Donation Accepted at Each Reading.
